COUNCIL APPROVES HALF MILLION FOR BUDGET, $100,000 FOR PAVING

The Warren borough council Monday night approved its $515,178 budget for 1957, with a one mill tax increase for a total of 26, plus the $5 per capita tax. It also approved a paving program calling for close to $100,000.

The budget knocks down into $384,178 for general expenditures, $26,000 for street lighting, $9,000 for the library, $9,000 for the pension fund, $38,000 for the sinking fund, and $49,000 for permanent street improvements.

However, the street improvement program actually runs close to $100,000, boosted no doubt by money already in the permanent fund. Streets to be paved and the cost of each are:

Hazel st., from Fourth to Fifth, 500 feet, $8,250.

Lexington ave., Parker to end of street, 500 feet, $9,900.

Ludlow st., Pennsylvania ave. to Allegheny, 500 feet, $8,250.

Madison ave., Grant to Marion, 1260 feet, $20,790.

McPherson st., Conewango to Hill, 1170 feet, $19,305.

Seneca, St. Clair to Wayne, 425 feet, $936.

In addition, Fourth st. will be resurfaced from Market to Beech st. This will cost $11,340 from Market to Laurel, and $5,940 from Laurel to Beech. Additional expenses will run it to about $19,000.

The total cost of the permanent streets will be about $78,000 when you add engineering, advertising and other expenses. Added to the Fourth st. resurfacing it totals about $97,000.

Plum st. residents were present to demand that their street be paved. They said it was a mud hole in all seasons and had been on the list for fourteen years. They claimed that trucks use it as a short-cut and as an easy exit from Pennsylvania ave.

Councilman Merenick, chairman of the public works committee, explained that council is trying to distribute paving between the wards and that paved access to Lexington has been provided on several streets. He said parking would be a problem on Plum as soon as it was paved because cars cannot be left on paved streets. There is no space for garages on Plum. He said he hoped Plum would be on the 1958 list.

Councilman Yagge fought for Plum st., and approved the engineer's plan to pave it if the state does not widen Jackson st. This would free $11,000.

Councilman Carbon suggested that the state be asked to accept Fourth as an alternate Route 62, thus freeing heavy traffic from the center of town. Trucks already are using it, and the state would thus assume its rightful responsibility of maintaining it. This would free money for such streets as Plum.

The millage breakdown for the year is 19 for general purposes, 2.5 for debt payments, 2 for street lighting, 1 for permanent street paving, .75 for the library and .75 for the pension fund.

Council voted to buy a Buick station wagon for the fire chief. The bid was $2900 plus the 1939 panel truck. H. L. Link bid $2,896 for a Dodge, but the committee recommended the Buick. The recommendation was supported 8 to 6. Bids by Carlson Motors and Fernow were thrown out because they allegedly did not meet specifications.

A machine for cleaning sewers, called a scavenger, was bought from R. P. Honeywell, of Mars, Pa., which bid $8,300. Allied Equipment Corp. of Carnegie, Pa., bid $9,197.

Three firemen were advanced from hosemen to drivers, Thomas D. Bean, Robert D. English, and Merritt R. Babcock, as of February 1, 1957. Lt. Geary W. Bean of the police department was granted a military leave.

Council approved an ordinance amendment that grants the Manufacturers Light and Heat a change in its right-of-way across the airport. It voted to ask for bids on its old platform scales and for its emergency fire truck.

It approved a Gravely tractor and five juvenile climbing pipe structures for the park department, learned that an application has been submitted for federal help in the construction of a sewage plant, and was advised that a test of civilian defense sirens would be made this week.

JOINT COMMITTEE HIRES ARCHITECTS, CONSIDERS $676,113 BUDGET

At its February session Monday evening the Joint Committee of the Warren Area School Board signed a contract for an Erie architectural firm to draw plans for a new high school and gave preliminary consideration to an estimated budget of $676,113.50 for the fiscal year 1957-58.

Chief approval was granted to hire the firm of Meyers, Krider, Werle, and Ellenberger, at an approximate cost of $116,000. Of this, $86,000 will come due next year. The board also gave the buildings and grounds committee authority to employ Burr Garvin, civil engineer, to make the topographical survey of the proposed new school site -- known as the Swick site.

Instructions were given the solicitor to contact the several owners of properties on the designated site to inform them of the board's intention to take part or all of their properties for school use. These properties include Swick, Rudolph, Anderson, Link and possibly one or two others.

The same architectural firm mentioned was employed to draw plans to install a new fire escape to the third floor of the present high school building and make the necessary modifications for using that part of the structure.

The 1957-58 estimated budget of $676,113.50 shows an increase of $78,845 of the budget adopted for the current year. Final consideration will be made at a meeting of the Joint Board on March 18.

An enrollment report was received, indicating a gradual increase from 1948 to the coming 1957 term of 1,083 pupils in the elementary, junior and senior high school. The latest figure is 3,727.

Ralph Veights, a member of the faculty and assistant football coach, was appointed head grid mentor to succeed Fred Bell. Mr. Bell resigned from the position following the 1956 campaign.

Payments approved included $242.50, special services; $428.40, substitute teachers; $650.75, janitors' overtime; $4,157.98, cafeteria bills; $1,710.30, services; and $1,008.08, for orders written during the month. The finance committee was authorized to pay bills in the amount of $3,213.94.

Joseph Passaro, high school principal, was given the consent of the board to act as assistant chairman of the visiting valuation committee at Mercer high school March 19-21; Lyell Carr's request to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference in New York March 14-16 was granted; as well as Dr. Carl Whipple's attendance at the Social Security Integration with Retirement System meeting in Harrisburg February 21.

Named to supervise loading and unloading of buses at Beaty were Valentine Condio, Henry Spackman and James Fales, while Mrs. Martha Duchess Anderson was employed to work four hours daily as high school secretary.

The committee approved summer band to be held July 22-Aug. 16 in cooperation with the Music Boosters, an evening class in German with Edward Zulak as instructor,

TB X-rays for high school students 15 and over the week of May 6-10, and the use of Beaty and high school parking lots for a car wash March 30 and April 6. The latter is being sponsored by the student council to raise funds for bringing an exchange student to Warren next year.

Four additional teachers will be engaged to instruct at the senior high next term, one of these to be a transfer from Beaty.

Mr. Harris Johnson was named to represent the board and distribute diplomas at commencement exercises.

ST. JOAN AS A GIRL

I have seen quite a few St. Joans, possibly too many. There is a law of diminishing returns on St. Joan and, after a bit, the wonder begins to diminish and then it is time for a long rest—about a ten year's rest—because if you ever lose the wonder of that girl, you're lost.

lian Hellman one - I have retained my own mental image of St. Joan as a small, nut brown, wiry peasant girl, not especially pretty, with a ready, witty tongue and a passionate soul that could strike sparks off the second balcony. Otherwise, how did she ever get away with it all?

Of all the St. Joans I have seen, I should say Julie Harris fits the image best. In fact, come to think of it, she's the only one who fits it at all. Ingrid Bergman, in the Maxwell Anderson version on the stage, was admirably impassioned but much too beautiful and much too big. Katharine Cornell in Shaw's St. Joan was moving but she was, I thought, too womanly, too stately, and - odd as it may seem - too saintly for the part.

St. Joan must be first a girl. She was, after all, only nineteen when she died. Julie Harris looks like a girl and a very remarkable one, which she must have been to have accomplished what she did. In Hallmark's admirable presentation of "The Lark" on NBC-TV the other night, which was lifted with some excisions and some additions from the stage version presented by Kermit Bloomgarden, the emphasis of the author, it seemed to me, is on the sheer remarkableness of the girl's life.

Mr. Anouilh has said of his play: "The Lark" makes no attempt to explain the mystery of Joan. The persistent effort of so-called modern minds to explain mysteries is, in any case, one of the most naive and foolish activities indulged in by the puny human brain since it became overstocked with shallow political and scientific notions... I always refuse to tell children how things work, even when I know; and in the case of Joan I did not know."

The play starts with the trial scene and then by flashbacks tells the story of Joan, starting with her days on the farm. For a peasant girl, just to get off the farm was no mean accomplishment, and in this scene Miss Harris is very much a girl - overwhelmed by her voices and her responsibilities. In the next, flattering and cajoling Robert de Beaudrincourt into providing her with a horse and an escort, she is a hoyden and minx and finally, talking the Dauphin into some semblance of kingship, she is both a soldier and statesman. A saint she is not, even at the stake.

Frankly, I am always uplifted by the vigor and dash of those scenes which show Joan accomplishing her incredible mission and let down sharply by the trial scenes which seem in contrast painful and dustily theological. The best lines at the trial are Joan's own words, in which she repeatedly confounds the best theological brains around. "Are you in a state of Grace?" - "If I am not, God will put me there. If I am, God will keep me there."

Miss Harris was surrounded by a very distinguished cast but, apart from Boris Karloff as a very sympathetic bishop torn between his humanity and his beliefs, I don't think any of them measured up to Miss Harris. As the Dauphin, Eli Wallach was much too full of little acting tricks and postures to be quite real. Basil Rathbone was a cold, implacable and altogether loathsome Inquisitor, but he didn't seem real either.

This was one dramatic show in which color added a good deal and it was used with sensible restraint. In sponsoring it, Hallmark has added one more fine play to a roster which is becoming increasingly impressive and for which we all owe the greeting card company a great vote of thanks.

And now I hope I may be excused from any more St. Joans for awhile. She was an incredible creature, all right, but she does exhaust a fellow.

All it takes is a GAS dryer ... and a Penny-a-Load!

Newlyweds, women with small children and women who have their children raised and married, all want an automatic GAS clothes dryer. Because then they can get out and enjoy themselves more often. No more hanging lines or carrying heavy baskets of wet wash.

Why a GAS Dryer? Because ONLY a GAS dryer costs less to install . . . operate . . . maintain! Yes, you can operate your GAS dryer for only a penny's worth of GAS per load; that's much less than the other fuel. Installation, too, costs far less because only a simple gas connection is needed. Gas burners last a lifetime; you don't have expensive service charges. Save time, save money . . . GAS DOES IT BETTER FOR LESS.

Without a GAS dryer, you have the drudgery of climbing steps with heavy wet wash, stringing lines, hanging clothes, and taking them down again.

With a GAS dryer, all you do is transfer clothes from your washer to your automatic GAS dryer, just a few steps away. Set the dial and forget it.

Get yourself a GAS dryer right away!

COULDN'T HEAR THEM

Obviously the civilian defense boys have a toughie on their hands. Using a very powerful Thunderbolt siren yesterday afternoon, a very small percentage of the town was able to hear it. Any noise, such as traffic or work in a plant, easily drowned it out.

Warren is situated in a triangle of valleys that always muffles a sound in one direction or another. To be really effective an alarm should get to everyone at any time of day. Probably it will be necessary to place sirens in the center of these fingers that reach west, east, and north. And it may be good to have another in the middle of the town.

ELECTION CANDIDATES

Last night we checked with eight Warren councilmen and two school board members to learn their plans for this election year. We missed Councilman Ted Berdine of the big Fifth because he was out of town, but we have been told that he probably will not run. Carl Timm has been reported as a candidate from this ward and we are sure another young man will run if Ted decides against it.

Scotty Calderwood, recently appointed to fill out the term of Chuck Frantz on the school board, will be a candidate. So will Russ Hanson.

Running down the council list we find Johnny Newmaker as a likely candidate but not announcing. Warren Miller in the Second, John Carbon in the Fourth, and Paul Yagge in the Sixth are definitely going to run.

Jesse Smith in the Third probably will run. Maurice Emery in the Eighth is undecided. Nick Merenick also is undecided but we expect him to serve again.

Ray Johnson, popular councilman from the Seventh, says it is not likely that he will be a candidate.

SPECIFICATIONS INADEQUATE

The purchase of a station wagon for the Warren fire chief at Monday's meeting suggested that council is not adequately listing its specifications when it invites such bids. Council wanted a heavy car but did not know what weight it would have to carry. How, then, did it know it wanted a heavy car?

Despite its claimed need for a heavy vehicle it did not advertise for heavy duty springs. This seems a bit inconsistent. It also ignored puncture proof tires by insisting on puncture proof tubes.

If heavy duty vehicles are needed for the police and the firemen, why does council not ask for bids on cars that are especially made for this work? They thus will eliminate the weak points they may miss in the specifications.

The embarrassing part of the entire discussion is that it appears that councilmen are lining up with various dealers. This may be true to some extent, but we believe the average councilman was not thinking about the make. He was trying to make sure of a fair shake for both the bidders and the taxpayer.

ABOUT TOMORROW we believe you will hear about one of those major business changes we predicted for 1957. At press time the principals were not ready to make a formal announcement.

THIRTY-EIGHT Merchants are working at providing you with those annual Dollar Day bargains this week. And in some of our papers the Warren Chamber of Commerce may have inserted coupons that are of value to the recipient. Other coupons will be distributed by Mr. X who will meander through the shopping area, tapping lucky shoppers. They will receive the paper slips. They are worth a dollar at any of the thirty-eight stores.

NOT CURES

The Federal Trade Commission this week named several drugs that are not what the ads say about them. One is Warsene Capsules, which has been advertised as an effective treatment of arthritis and rheumatism. The FTC says this will do nothing more than give temporary relief from minor aches and pains.

Then there is Renor Concentrate and Rennel Concentrate which are advertised as being effective weight reducers. Not so, says the FTC. They are essentially laxatives and not effective aids to the overweight.

Another is Dyn-A-Pak Food Supplement. This is supposed to prevent baldness or to give energy and endurance to those who are weak and tired. So it has been advertised in newspapers and magazines. It will do none of these things, says the FTC.

Three companies have been charged with misrepresenting the effects their hair preparations will have on baldness. They are Collins Hair and Scalp Experts, Inc., Carey Hair and Scalp Experts, Inc., and Winston, Ltd. The Commission says these companies claim their preparations will check thinning hair, prevent and overcome all types of baldness, induce hair to grow, or cause hair to become thicker. These claims are false, the complaint states.

OLD OIL

Selling old oil as new is one the Federal Trade Commission cracks down on regularly. Three companies now are under fire for such misrepresenting.

Allied Petroleum and Super-Lube Oil CO., both of Philadelphia, sell old oil separately or blended with new oil under the trade names Super-Lube and Arist-O-Lube. The oil is drainage from crankcases and is reclaimed in a Florida plant. The labels and advertising do not disclose these facts.

Royal Oil Corp., of Baltimore, Maryland, sells Jet and Lubex in the same containers used for new oil with no markings to tell the difference. The contents are in whole or in part used oil, says the FTC.

NOT JEWEL WATCH

The Cimier watch does not meet the trade's description of a jeweled watch and its cases contain no gold, says the Federal Trade Commission. The Cimier-Watch Corp., and the Ab-Swiss Watch Corp., both located at a New York city address, have been charged with misrepresenting that the Cimier is a jeweled gold watch which carries a one-year unconditional guarantee.

The industry defines a jeweled watch as one containing at least seven jewels serving as frictional bearings. The Cimier does not meet this description, the Commission says. It also claims the watch cases contain no gold and the so-called unconditional guarantee provides for payment of a service charge.

PLASTIC EYE GLASS

Remember those plastic eye glasses we wrote about many months ago? They are becoming a fact. At least one Warren optometrist has a sample pair in his office. They are very light and extremely tough.

1300 CURIOUS

Over 1300 attended the Jaycee industrial fair that was held in Beaty cafeteria last Friday and Saturday. A major percentage of these were amazed at many products that are turned out in Warren county plants.

Our reaction was the realization that behind this wide variety of highly specialized products that are

And a level below the top brains are needed the many technicians, assistants, and key shop men, such as toolmakers, draftsmen, lay-out men, forgers, welders, and numerous others. There are the metallurgists, the estimators, the cost accountants, and informed salesmen to make all of it possible.

And of course you will find behind the entire lot, those who are willing to invest their money on a chance that sufficient skill can be found to make a product that will hold its own, and sales methods developed to promote it in the world market.

Imagination, hustle, initiative, courage, knowledge, coordination, cooperation, vision, competitive spirit, and a willingness to scramble for the dollar . . . all represented in a horseshoe of display booths.

MORE PICNIC AND CAMPING AREA NEEDED

Since the Civilian Conservation Corps did its work during the depression years, no major expansion program has been undertaken in national forests. The result is that forty per cent of those who use the forests for camping, picnicking, and other puposes must locate outside the improved areas.

Obviously this is not satisfactory, either from the viewpoint of the forest managers or the public. To make it worse, many of the improved areas have deteriorated and are in need of repair.

The United States Department of Agriculture is coming up with a five-year plan to accommodate twice as many people as now is possible. Over 2,000 new camping and picnicking grounds will be built with facilities that will serve about 40,000 families. In addition, the tables, fireplaces, and sanitary facilities on the 4,900 camp and picnic grounds now existing will be improved. These now can accommodate about 41,400 families.

The use of such areas is rapidly increasing. In less than ten years it moved from 18 million to 45 million visits in one year. There are more people, more leisure time, more money to spend, and a bigger interest in recreation.

BOAT SHOW

This Thursday, Friday, and Saturday a boat show is being held in the Warren State Armory on Hickory street with everything from small fishing boats to a cabin cruiser on display. The doors will be open daily from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m., with no admission charge.

The show is being put on by Montgomery Ward, with hostesses and models to set off the water vehicles. There also will be door prizes.

HERE WE GO AGAIN

The legislators are at it again and the hopper is filling up with proposed changes that will affect the sportsmen. One of the suggestions which strikes close to the heart of most outdoorsmen would make it necessary to register your rifle or shotgun at a cost of fifty cents before you could transport it in your car. The right to carry arms enters here, and you can be sure there will be some hunters and fishermen who aren't going to like this.

Another bill introduced would let any disabled person hunt from his car, whether or not he is a war veteran. Veterans now enjoy this privilege.

If you run into a deer there is a bill suggested that will pay you up to $2500 annually. Payments would be made by the Game Commission.

DOE LICENSES

An amendment to the law controlling the issuance of antlerless deer licenses has been proposed. Fifty per cent of the licenses would be issued by mail during a two-week period in September. The Game Commission would supply the proper envelope and application form.

The other fifty per cent would be issued by the county treasurer in the county where doe hunting is permitted. This would be done after October 15. The treasurer could sell licenses only to those who appeared in person, except an applicant could buy licenses for those in his family living at the same address.

Any licenses not sold by the Commission could then be sold in person by the county's treasurer. The county would not be allowed to sell any by mail. County treasurers violating the law would be fined $500.

HOMES FOR DUCKS

Hunters are being asked to help house the wood duck. A new type of home has been developed that protects him from his natural enemies and does not deteriorate as fast as the wood ones which previously have been provided. Building such homes became necessary when trees disappeared and also the ducks.

The new homes are made of galvanized pipe and iron. The Commission provides a detailed drawing and instructions. The best time to build them is during the winter when it is easier to walk out onto the ponds and marshes to pound the pipe into the ground at the bottom. This is difficult to do from a boat or while wading.

Five hundred such homes proved very successful and this year the Commission will erect another thousand. Hunters can augment these with many more, helping to make Pennsylvania a haven for the woodie.

The house portion of the structure has a door three by four inches in size. This has proved more successful than the former four by four, which let some coons enter. The three-inch height of the door lets the woodie in but keeps his major enemies out.

The homes look like a rocket sitting in the swamp. They are pointed on the top with a coned dome. The bottom of the house is between five and seven feet above water.

The Observer has a drawing you are welcome to study, or you can write for plans of your own.

NEW SHOW FOR KIDDIES

"Let's Open the Door", WBEN-TV's new Sunday morning program for children, takes them through a variety of portals into the magic TV-Land of popular cartoon characters and pet animals. Among the big doors and little doors, the high doors and the low doors, will be one marked "Art Workshop". Across this threshold, young viewers will be shown how to make their own toys, games or gifts.

Publicity previews indicate that this is one of the better children's programs, educational as well as entertaining. But why the 9-10 a. m. spot when the wee ones should be getting ready for Sunday School? *

NEWSCAST BANNED & WHY

Eric Sevareid's proposed comments on the state department ban of American newsmen in Communist China was kept off the air on the night of February 6 because "it was too editorial". Officials in Washington and New York tabooed the script on the grounds quoted plus the fact that it "violated CBS policy which permits news analysis but not editorial comment". The decision not to tape the script was made too late for Mr. Sevareid to prepare a substitute. *

LADIES ONLY

Don't miss Warner's (foundation garments) television Fashion Show on Saturday, March 2. This will be a 60-minute preview of spring's outstanding new fashions. NBC-TV in color and black-and-white.

KDKA STEPS IN LINE

KDKA-TV will follow the pattern set by other channels with a late "live" news and weather report program, beginning February 17. To be called the "11th Hour News", the 15-minute spot will be presented each Sunday night at 11 p. m. by Al McDowell, veteran KDKA radio newscaster. Bill Nesbitt will handle the 5-minute weather forecast at 11:30. *

TV BUG BITES RUSSIA

Soviet Russia has become quite TV-minded. Moscow reports say they are working on a plan to exchange television programs with foreign countries, as yet unnamed. The reports add that there will be, by 1960, more than 75 Soviet stations in operation plus some 300 relay stations. New and better receivers are being built in Russian factories and color telecasts will soon be on the air from Moscow.

Already Moscow radio has announced an American-style quiz show coming up to lure American listeners. "Intercontinental Quiz" will be beamed to North America and for correct answers to nine questions valuable prizes will be given. The prizes? A collection of Soviet stamps, a set of reproductions of Russian paintings or an album of Soviet phonograph records. Pardon us while we spin the dial. *

SWEDISH COMPETITION

Contestants on the "$64,000 Question" may have some stiff competition in a 14-year old boy from Sweden who is eyeing the big money show. Ulf Hannerz, son of a Stockholm doctor, won $2,000 in Sweden's newest quiz show and is after bigger game. He says he has been invited to accompany his father to this country next summer. The youngster is editor and publisher of a magazine (circulation 100) devoted to aquarium fish. He won the Swedish contest by answering seven complicated questions about fish. *

DIAL SPINNERS

POPEYE THE SAILOR MAN has been assigned his own show on WBEN-TV each Saturday morning at 8:30 beginning February 23. The cartoon character who gets unusual strength from eating spinach will be seen in a number of his own cartoons.

"THE OTHERS", an adaptation of Henry James' novel "The Turn of the Screw" seen in recent Broadway revivals, will be presented on NBC Matinee Theater Friday afternoon at 3 p. m. Sarah Churchill will be starred as a conscientious governess who tries to protect her two young charges from supernatural evil spirits.

ART LINKLETTER stars in his first dramatic role on TV when he appears in GE Theater's "The Big Shooter" next Sunday. He plays the part of a man who dreams of becoming a big game hunter.

CALL YOUR DOCTOR, this special program on obesity was originally scheduled for Tuesday, February 19, but has been postponed one week until Tuesday, February 26.

CLIMAX, A Thursday night CBS hour-long show, will present "The Long Count" this week. Viveca Lindfors, John Ericson, Jacques Bergerac and Paul Stewart appear in it.

SCIENCE FICTION THEATER, Saturday night on Channel 4, stars Ruth Hussey as a magazine editor who is troubled by frightening nightmares in which America's most closely guarded secrets are revealed to her in "The Unguided Missile".

SATURDAY PLAYHOUSE will show "Western Union" this week. This is the gripping Zane Grey adventure story of the fierce battle to build the first transcontinental telegraph through the West infested with renegades and hostile Indians. In the cast are Robert Young, Randolph Scott, Dean Jagger, John Caradine and Virginia Gilmore.

ART CHAPMAN, former Warren resident while a vice president of Sylvania, and now a CBS president, rated his picture and an interview in the Christian Science Monitor, February 2, and space in the Wall Street Journal February 4. He discussed the future of television and radio, and predicted a rapid expansion of color tv.

HER FIRST LEADING role on television for Barbara Barrie will be in Wait for Me, a teenage drama to be presented by Montgomery Monday evening, at 9:30, NBC.

TEN CATEGORIES will have nominees announced as a part of the Emmy all-star show Saturday night, NBC, 9 to 10:30. There actually are 29 categories, but for this program five will be named for Best Single Program of the Year, Best Coverage of a Newsworthy Event, Best Continuing Performance in a Dramatic Series, Best Continuing Performance by a Comedian (in some of these there will be awards also for the lady gender), Best Single Performance by an Actor, Best Male Personality in a Continuing Performance.

A LIVE BROADCAST really was made last Thursday when NBC moved its Today camera into the Utah State prison for a shot of the rioters. They were stalled for a while when prisoners cut the power.

TENNIS WILL COME to Steve Allen's show Saturday, with Pancho Gonzales and other Jack Kramer players exhibiting trick shots. Tab Hunter, Frankie Laine, and Martha Carson also will be on hand.

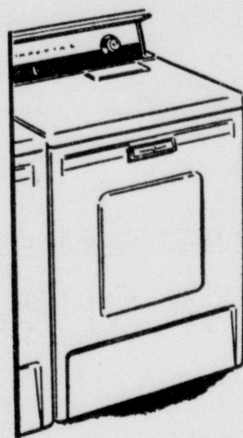

MAURICE CHEVALIER, without his straw hat, will be seen in Maurice Chevalier's Paris, March 6, NBC, 8 to 9. In it Chevalier will introduce Paris and its way of life as he sees it.

Observations

By Bob Walsh

HOW GOOD A SCHOOL WILL WE BUILD?

The Warren area jointure has voted to build a new school on a new site and has a committee working on the preliminary plans of location and acreage. Up to now the public has shown a great interest in this subject which reached a climax last fall when the board voted to proceed as was requested by most people. That interest should not lag!

We doubt if the school will cost less than two and a half million dollars. And it will be with us for a long time. It is one of the biggest steps taken by the area in many years and can provide a facility that will be of great service to all of us. Or it can be limited to a narrow gauge structure that will run out of date even as an educational unit within a very few years.

The public should be kept fully informed in regard to the actions of any committees concerned with the planning of this school. It is not sufficient to complete the plans before revealing what they include.

There is much that can be done in connection with this school to save the area money in the future. There are facilities that can be included that may make the price higher than some would want it, but the resultant combination will be a saving.

Considering the small percentage of the total price that goes into land, it certainly will be a limited vision which does not buy more than we apparently need. Who can predict future expansion needs? And if the area improves, as it will with a major school in the area, the land always will be a liquid asset for which we will receive more than we pay.

We know of two large acreages in that area which already are planning housing projects, and there no doubt are others. Upper Fifth, and the ridge from Fifth to Quaker rd. will boom if the school is built. One day you will see paved streets lining that ridge and those who chirped about access will have been forgotten.

We believe the public should demand a quality school. Cutting corners to save a dollar here and there is fine if the corners are not too desirable. But we have seen some mighty cheap schools result from penny-thinking. We can afford the best. This is not an impoverished area.

Such a facility as the auditorium is of great importance. Too many corners were trimmed on the Beaty job. The result is that Warren still lacks an adequate auditorium. We should not repeat that performance in the high school.

We should have a seating capacity that will adequately serve either the student body or the adult population of the area. The stage area should be large and efficient. The scenery change facilities should be modern and complete. There should be adequate storage room for all recognized groups which wish to use the auditorium, such as the Players Club. And there should be rehearsal room.

To have an adequate auditorium will not cost us enough more to justify the use of a budget paring knife, and we are sure that there are those among us who would donate money to provide a fund with which to make it possible to have the best. The few additional seats and the other facilities which would make it a truly efficient unit would not amount to very much.

The same goes for a swimming pool. No one is asking the school board to include a swimming pool as a part of the school financing. But we obviously are going to publicly raise money with which to build a swimming pool. Whether this happens this year or ten years from now, why not plan the school so that the pool can be a part of it?

The school can be built in such a way that if a combination outdoor and indoor pool is constructed, locker rooms and showers will be so situated as to accommodate it. Is this asking very much?

The advantages are many. The school system will not be paying for the pool. There will be parking available for all who use any portion of the building. Swimmers will have their sport 365 days a year, indoors and out, thus getting more for our money and much more good health for those who so benefit. And the school with no investment will have a facility available that will be of great value to its students.

These are major proposals mentioned here. But the same will go for every class room, hallway, gymnasium, utility room, band room, cafeteria appliance, faculty room, or any other area you can mention. We want the best, and we should be kept alerted to the thinking of the committees and the board every step of the way.

You may suggest that we don't seem to trust the board. Generally speaking we trust them very much. VALUABLE ADVICE was given to officials of the National Forge Credit Union by William Gardner, of Pittsburgh, a representative of the state association. At the meeting were (left to right): SEATED: Harold Patchen, president, Mr. Gardner, Gerald Wallin, credit committee member; Bill Downing, supervisory committee member; Steve Zock, director and clerk; George Eberhardt, supervisory committee member. STANDING: Tom Glossick, director; Edward Flynn, credit committee member; Bill Baughman, vice president; Lawrence Owens, credit committee member; and John Knapp, supervisory committee member.

A LOOK BACK. Yes, it's Jerry Park, popular Warren police officer, and the International bus he was operating back about 1922. It was one of the first buses ever driven out of Warren and was driven on the Warren-Youngsville route. The owner of the strange looking vehicle was Glenn G. Green, and the operators besides Officer Park were Ernie Hoskins, Warren, and Ted Austin, now of Warren, Ohio.

CLASSIFYING HIGH SCHOOLS

Perhaps you often have wondered how they arrive at the classification of Pennsylvania high school teams. We are sure the general public must be confused about much of the Pennsylvania set-up, including the districts in which some are located.

In District 10 for example we have a few exceptions. Both Sharon and Farrell should be in the district as far as their geographical location is concerned. But they are entered in District 7, for which several schools in this area probably are well pleased. In the average year they would wade through most any sectional competition with little trouble.

East Forest is allowed to play in District 10, though it is located in District 9. Sheffield which is in District 10 is allowed to play in District 9. The same goes for Emlenton and Victory Jointure.

The classification of the schools is arrived at far in advance. The basketball classifications next year will be based on the enrollment last fall. Class C is for schools under 250. This will place Northern Area in Class B. It had an enrollment of 252 as of October 31, 1956.

Class B ranges from 250 to 499. Those with enrollments of 500 and over must play Class A.

The biggest enrollment in this area is enjoyed by Meadville which has won the sectional crown seven straight years. It has an enrollment of 1405. However, Warren has 1290 which is big enough to find ten boys who can play the game. Erie Academy has 1296, though we don't believe this includes its freshmen.

Smallest schools in the district are Tidioute with 105 and Pleasantville with 118. Youngsville has 393. East Forest registers 130, and West Forest, which is listed in District 9, has 164.

Explaining Millcreek's climb in sports is an enrollment of 1071 which is bigger than East's 604, Strong Vincent's 964, and Tech's 484.

Other schools in Warren's league and their enrollments are: Oil City, 927; Franklin, 715; Titusville, 690, and Corry, 666. Other competitors are Bradford with 1378, and Kane with 584.

In the game of basketball size does not play as great a part as in football. In small schools where basketball is popular and the boys really work at it in all seasons, exceptional teams result. And coaching, of course, is another major factor.

Teams also can move out of their class by asking to be placed in the one above. In District 10 we find Sharpville playing Class A, though it has not been big enough in the past. However, right now it has 551 students and is Class A automatically. Two unusual ones in this respect are Fredonia-Delaware with 139 students and electing to play Class B, and Sparta with 141, Wesleyville with 162, and Randolph with 175, all choosing Class B.

be heard at Chautauqua next summer. Lilian Kallir, who has been engaged to play with the New York Philharmonic Symphony orchestra next fall, will be the soloist for the Chautauqua symphony on August 11 and 17.

Miss Kallir has won the National Music League award and the American Artists award. She has had successful tours of Europe and a triumphal debut in Town Hall. Before doing a European tour this spring she will have had the distinction of performing in the first Young Artists Series at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Directing the Chautauqua orchestra next summer for the fifth season will be Walter Hendl. He conducts the Dallas Symphony orchestra, also. The Chautauqua group's first concert will be heard July 5, and the last on August 21.

IN BIG COMPANY

Teresa Fino, of Warren, who is studying music in New Yrk, was one of a trio who provided the family night program at the New York Public Library Wednesday evening. Teresa presented songs from an American album. Also on the program were Emily Kimbrough and Pauli Murray. Mrs. Kimbrough is the author of many books and a well known lecturer. Miss Murray is an authority on civil rights. ***

WATER SHOW

If you like boats, there will be sixteen of them on display in the Warren State Armory the last three days of this week, from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. Montgomery Ward is showing the boats, ranging from the smallest to the biggest, and with attractive models to give them life. With talk of a clean river and with cottages sprouting on the river and creek, there should be something attractive here for those who like to spend their fun time on the water. ***

BUSY PLACE

The ice rink on Beaty field requires no figures to prove its popularity. However, Jim Reier, park superintendent, offers a few figures that prove the increased interest in the sport. Last year we had a tougher winter and 41 days of skating. About 12,000 persons used the rink. This year we have had only 20 days of skating, but 11,840 have been on the ice not counting unsupervised morning and afternoon hours. ***

WELL RECEIVED by the critics last Thursday evening when it opened in New York was "Visit To A Small Planet", in which a bit of Warren money and former Warren money is invested. Cyril Ritchard plays the lead. Several leading TV shows are clamoring for visits by members of the cast, but so far the producers have said "no".

CONFERENCE PLAY

It's the same old story in Section Two this season -- the Meadville Bulldogs won their seventh straight championship title and 43rd straight conference victory to add lace to their laurels.

The finale came last Friday night when the D's whipped Titusville 79-54, with Roberts and Evans teaming up for 40 points.

The first District 10 playoff is scheduled for March 8 at Farrell and will feature Meadville and Erie Strong Vincent, the Section Three champion. Both teams finished with 8-0 records in their leagues. The District title will then be decided at Farrell on March 16 when the victor meets Grove City, the Section One titleholders. The Grovers cinched their first crown in a quarter of a century by nosing out Sharpsville 37-36 Tuesday night.

In other Section Two play Oil City came out with a 59-58 win over rival Franklin and Warren tripped Corry 64-56.

Youngsville continued to lead in the Upper Allegheny Valley circuit by defeating East Forest 54-34, but West Forest and Northern Area also chalked up wins to remain hot on the Eagles' tailfeathers.

The Tionesta five rapped Tidioute 52-38 and the Knights scored 73-44 over defending Pleasantville.

Standings: Youngsville 6-1, Northern Area 5-2, West Forest

5-2, Pleasantville 3-3, East Forest 2-5, and Tidioute 1-6.

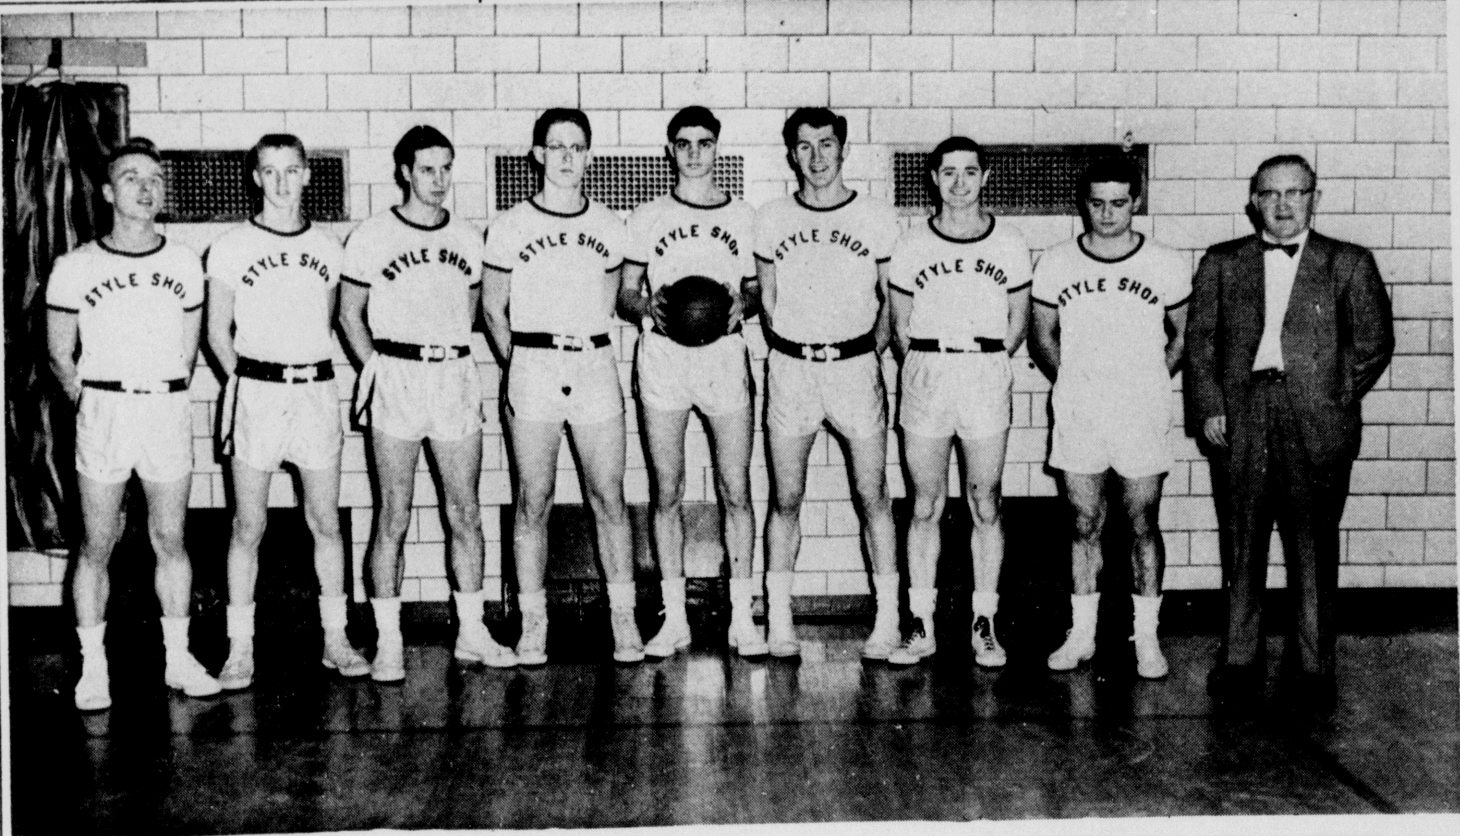

Only one game figured in Allegheny Mountain loop play over the past week, as Emporium strengthened its second place position by licking Johnsonburg 52-50 in overtime. St. Marys leads with 5-0 and Sheffield rides third back with 2-3. The Cameron County lads have 4-2.

AREA SCORES

Unbeaten in 19 games the Sharon High Tigers seem a cinch to roll to a Section III WPIAL championship. Last Friday the team defeated Aliquippa 51-43 in league play and on Tuesday rested with a 60-40 triumph against Hickory.

WNAE ALL-STAR TEAM

A pair of Warren high cagemen won berths on the 1957, Section 2, District 10 all-star team released this week. Winning top honors were Ed Rickerson and Jack Karkosky. Others awarded first-team positions were Roberts and Evans of Meadville, Tomer of Corry, and Snell of Franklin.

Second team: Lindquist and Mohnkern of Warren, Boyersmith of Meadville, Garvey of Oil City, Beightol of Franklin, and Cox of Titusville. Third team: Danielson and Dahl of Warren, Goodin and Eubanks of Meadville, Turner and Dietsch of Corry. Six men were named for each team.

Given honorable mention were Pringle and Aragon of Meadville, Hoffman and Berdine of Warren, Mitchell and Latos of Corry, Harris and Kuhn of Franklin, Wilson and Dudzic of Oil City, Curtis and Dewey of Titusville.

The selections were made by Frank Felesi, sportscaster of the local radio station.

GRA-Y DOUBLEHEADER

Bruce Lawton found the rim for 22 points to lead East to a 38-10 victory over Sugar Grove in Gra-Y league action on the "Y" court Saturday. In a second tilt McClintock handed Lacy a 33-11 defeat as Davis and Creola scored 13 and 12 points respectively for winners.

NEW BULLDOG COACH

The Meadville Joint Area high school has announced the appointment of Thomas G. Duff, 29, as its new head football coach. The new mentor was at Steubenville, Ohio, last three seasons.

Duff used a tight and split "T" formation to guide his team to a 24-6 record at the Ohio school.

DRAGON MATMEN WIN

Gail Page and Steve Pearson were the lone Warren high grapplers to pin their opponents in the Dragons' 23-19 victory over Redbank Valley last Thursday evening. The meet took place on the Valley mats.

Earning decisions in the contest were Don Brian, Harry Brooker and Iver Stenberg. Bruce Trevenen and Ron Bowen had draws.

Matmen Larry Campbell, Denny Flatt and Jay Benze each lost decisions and Bruno Zaffino was put to the canvas in the first period.

TRACK STAR PROMOTED

Dean O. Blair, 24, holder of the Warren high school broad jump record with a leap of 21 feet, 10 inches, has been promoted to first lieutenant in Korea where he is assigned to the 7th Infantry Division. The local man, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Blair, 311 Water st., set his track record in 1950.

Now an executive officer of Battery B in the division's 49th Field Artillery Battalion, he entered the Army in June 1955 and arrived overseas the following November. Blair graduated from Stetson University, DeLand, Fla., in 1954.

YMCA-CITY LEAGUE

The Unknowns racked up a pair of Y-City league victories during the week, trapping Emersons 70-60 and the Knights of Columbus 74-63. Obinger, Garrett and Brooker accounted for 56 of the first game total, and the latter two again starred in the K of C triumph by racking up 21 and 19 respectively.

Ricky Scalise and Dave Bathurst hit for 22 and 19 to pace the K of C's lone win over Guiffres 83 to 50. Jim Sturdevant was tops for the losers with 15.

In the other contest Bovas beat Guiffres by 60 to 56. Chuck Still had 19 for Bovas, and Nick Creola tallied 18 for the defeated five.

LOSES LOOP CONTEST

Beaty's Blue and Gold basketball team suffered a 63-50 defeat at the hands of the Chadakoin league leading Washington aggregation on the New Yorkers' court Tuesday afternoon.

The local defending champs fell behind a 20-8 margin the opening period and failed in their efforts to catch up.

White was top man in the scoring column for Warren with 20 counters, but the afternoon's honors were won by Rosean and Sali of Washington with 26 and 22 respectively.

Last Friday Coach Bob Fey's quintet scored a 41-37 victory over Jefferson, with Lind and Fowler tallying 10 counters apiece.

RETAIN SECOND PLACE

The Warren high Dragons retained second place in Section Two conference play last Friday night by licking Corry's Beavers 64-56. But Meadville wrapped up its seventh straight crown the same night by beating Titusville.

After a slow start the Massmen picked up and had the game deadlocked by the close of the third quarter. A 22 point effort in the final stanza wrapped the game up. Jack Karkosky and Steve Lindquist were high scorers with 16 and 14 respectively.

On Tuesday night the Dragons found non-circuit play less satisfying and dropped their second of the season to the Bradford Owls by a 50 to 40 count.

It looked good for Warren when they were enjoying an eight point lead at the half, but a two-point third quarter and a nine-point finish washed up the locals as Bradford strengthened their offense with 29 counters.

The Owls' Barber took the laurels with 19 points. Ed Rickerson accounted for 16 of Warren's scoring.

CHURCH LEAGUE ACTIVITY

Only a lone contest was staged in the Church basketball loop Monday night with St. Paul's nosing out a 56-55 win over the First Baptist. The winning margin came with a 19-point splurge in the final period.

Dick Terry continued to play the lead role for the winners by racking up 14 counters. Bob Gannoe had 13 for the Baptist boys.

Last Thursday the Baptist team slapped a 62-46 defeat label on the Presbyterians as Jack Colvin, Paul Butler and Dave Anundson shared 38 points. Jim Ostergard and Russ Rudolph accounted for 35 of the losing five's total.

On the same card Grace Methodist knocked off St. Paul's 52 to 47, Craig Wyman pacing the winners with 22 counters. Terry and Jack Beck each had 12 for St. Paul's.

CONEWANGO CREEK?

About once a year some one mails us an editorial page from the Sewickly Herald in which some editor with something to do besides study the facts and more words to waste than he has knowledge of his subject takes a swing at the Kinzua dam. This year he goes on in a Peglerized circular style for too many paragraphs in which he quite naturally says nothing concrete on a subject about which he apparently knows less than that.

He proves this quite conclusively when in the midst of his rant he mentions that the Conewango Creek is the cause of our floods. Obviously the man lives in Sewickly. He would know better if he had stood many times on the banks of the river while its waters were receding and the waters of the Conewango were at flood stage.

This happened very recently. The river shot up very quickly one evening, due to gorges breaking loose upstream. The next day the river dropped rapidly. But while the river was falling off several feet the Conewango Creek was maintaining its high flow and had not dropped more than a foot several days after the flood scare.

We have seen the Conewango move up there at the lowland wetting stage many times with little effect on the Allegheny. In fact, last March when Warren had the big one, the Conewango creek continued to flow at a very high rate for many days while the river was dropping rapidly.

A basic error such as this gives the reader good foundation for strong suspicion of the writer's knowledge of the subject on which he chooses to cant. Repetitious use of propaganda slants which have been mouthed for years by those who are prejudiced against the dam is not a very constructive approach to a problem which has proved so costly and can prove even more costly if the weather is unkind at the wrong hour during some future flood.

When the space-filler in Sewickly asked for facts, we could understand why. He needs a fresh supply to confuse.

YOU ARE TO BLAME

If your income tax form is found to be wrong, you are at fault. This is true even if you visit the Internal Revenue Service office and obtain help. No matter who prepares a return, the taxpayer is responsible for its accuracy.

Several common errors include use of the wrong form, especially by those whose income exceeds $5,000. They should not use 1040-A. Their form is 1040. Errors in computation, failure to sign names, failure to list dependents, and wrong addresses are prolific mistakes.

Credit for excess social security tax withheld is allowable only if the employee worked for more than one employer. If you have had only one employer, obtain your reimbursement from him, not the government.

A double, and even a triple, check of the form before mailing may save you much trouble.

COAST GUARD EXPANDS

The Coast Guard is looking for additional men to fill the new ships, planes, and stations which this branch of the service is receiving. Young men between 17 and 26 are immediately accepted. Also those under 35 who have had military service. Petty officer ratings are available for men with previous naval experience.

You can call or visit the recruiting station in the Erie court house, Phone 54960.

In the words of Dwight D. Eisenhower, "the heart diseases constitute a foremost national health problem and pose a constant threat for almost every American family."

Among the leaders of the crusade against the heart diseases is the American Heart Association. To your son you're a hero—strong, dependable, a refuge from harm. But will he be able to depend on you even after you are no longer here?

Yes, he will...if you take these simple steps: Visit our Trust Department—tell us your wishes and problems. After a three-way conference with an attorney, a sound estate plan can be drafted, and the attorney will draw your Will.

It's even easier than it sounds; and you'll feel like a better husband and father afterward.

If we are named executor, your family will have three great safeguards: long and varied experience—lasting, continuous existence—financial responsibility.
